AT VIRGINIA HOT SPRINGS

Special to The Times-Dispatch.
Hot Springs, Va., August 26.—Hot Springs is looking forward to a September and October filled with unusual golf interest. During the summer alterations have been made in the eighteen hole golf links by which nearly one thousand yards have been added to the course, and its former attractiveness greatly increased. The improvements include the changing of the original seventeenth and eighteenth holes, which were thought to be too close together, and the placing in their stead of three new holes, back of Sunset Hill. The course will thus be lengthened from 5,000 to 6,000 yards.
The annual fall tournament for the championship of the links will be played the 1st of October. There is some talk of organizing a golf club with greens and tournament committees, in which case it is probable that some of the most important games in the country would be played here.
September weather has already set in, with cool, bright days, and there has been much playing on the links this week.
Many of the younger contingent at the Homestead were guests of Shannon L. Meany, the middle of the week at a dinner party in the Japanese room.
The table decorations were roses, and lilies-of-the-valley, and the guests were given bouquets and corsage bouquets of the same flowers. Among those present were General and Mrs. Edward P. Meany, Mrs. William Moffitt, Mrs. J.
S. Bates, the Misses Mildred Eddy, Abbie Barnard, Judith and Sarah Colston, Roberta and Sarah Hamilton, Jessie Adams, Josephine Palms, and others. "Chew and Messer," Albert Combs, W. W. Hackett, E. V. Venable, William Trigg, J. V. Canby, Lathrop Lee, Charles Elliott, Benjamin Keene, and James Dean Bickford.
Miss Mildred Eddy, who has been at the Homestead for several weeks, is the guest of Miss Abbie Barnard at Inglewood.
Luncheon visitors at Fasselern Farm within the last day or two were Mrs.
Caldwin Carlisle, Miss L. Schroeder, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Cramp, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Crocker, Curtis Crocker, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Richardson, Mrs. Eunice Richardson, J. M. Howell, and Oscar Keene.
Miss Lucretia Green entertained a number of young people the middle of the week at luncheon at the Boone Cabin. The party was chaperoned by Mrs. Giles, and Miss Rebecca Giles, and included the Misses Eleanor Bright, Judith, Fannie, Eleanor Hopkins, and Helen Norris.
Mr. Atkinson and the Misses Osborne were out for the day on horseback yesterday, riding along the chain of mountains from Delafield Path to Flag Rock.
Richmond arrivals at the Homestead this week have included J. Allen Bollene, William Trigg, Miss Isabelle Carter, Mr. and Mrs. George F. Hutchinson, and Miss Potts.
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Johnson, of Richmond, are at the Bridge for an outing.
Mrs. Mary E. Willson, of Richmond, has joined Harvey Willson's party at the Bridge.

AT WAYNESBORO

Special to The Times-Dispatch.
Waynesboro, Va., August 26.—Delightfully cool weather in this locality for the past week has added greatly to the enjoyment of the guests at the Brunswick Inn. As a result, outdoor recreations, such as tennis, driving, walking, boating and fishing, are being pursued with vigor. Informal card parties, however, are still favorite amusements.
Tuesday evening a progressive Five Hearted party was given in the ballroom. Five tables, with twenty players, participated. The first prize was won by Mrs. Katherine Robinson, the consolation by Mrs. Stevens, of Richmond, and the booby prize by Mrs.
Silva, of Porto Rico.
A much-enjoyed tacky party was given Saturday evening. About thirty guests, arrayed in incongruous dress, exhibited themselves to the audience that thronged the ball-room. After carefully examining the merits of the contestants the six judges unanimously awarded the prize to Miss Satter-thite of Sumter, S. C., as having the most artistic make-up. The party then wound up with a grand march, Virginia reel and an admirably executed cake-walk.
Recent guests from Richmond registered at the inn are as follows: Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Habington, who have been touring the Valley in their automobile.
Wirt E. Taylor, who spent the weekend with his daughter, Miss Kate Taylor.
Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hubbard and Mrs.
W. H. Harris, W. P. McLean and W. S.
Weddell.
Miss Rebecca Gordon, who has joined her parents, Colonel and Mrs. John W.
Gordon, here.

AT ALLEGHANY INN

Special to The Times-Dispatch.
Goshen, August 26.—Mrs. Capriano Andrade, of New York, was the latest of a charming card party on Tuesday, evening in honor of Miss Bettie Clark, of Richmond. The large parlor was converted into a woodland dell, by means of huge garlands of ferns that were suspended from the central chandeliers to those in each corner and banked on the mantles, in the fireplaces and on the piano. Set like stars in their midst were white snowballs and hydrangeas, making a lovely effect. The guests were entertained with bridge and 500 and a number of prizes were distributed. For the women playing bridge the first prize was a miniature pangled fan, won by Mrs. Norton Savage, of Richmond, and the next prize, a crocheted scarf, won by Miss Marie Burwell, of Jacksonville, Mrs. W. J. Aven, of Washington, was consoled with a set of Japanese memory bells.
R. H. McMillan, of Savannah, made the top score among the men and received a box of handkerchiefs. Mr.
J. R. Gildersleeve, of Richmond, was presented with a box of toilet articles as master of ceremonies. Miss Clark received a jeweled pin as the guest prize. Miss Spogle, of Shelby-ville, Ind., won a chess set for the prize at the 500 matches. Miss Rebecca Pearson, of New Orleans, won the second prize, an embroidered collar.
Miss Susie Slaughter, of Norfolk, received the consolation, an amethyst necklace, and Harvey Cassidy, of Washington, a box of handkerchiefs as the chief score among the men. Refreshments were served at the card tables after the game.
The children at the inn participated in the most enjoyable event of the season on Monday evening when the ballroom was given over to them for a fancy dress contest. The grand march was led by little Miss Ida Moore. The two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Richmond Moore, of Richmond, and Noble Jones, Jr., the son of Mr. and Mrs. Noble Jones, of Savannah, who was about the same tender and adorable manner of years. The prizes went to little Miss Mary Carter, of Washington, and Master Huston Pilson, of Washington.
The dance given on Saturday evening was in honor of the men attending the summer school of the V. M. I. held at the Rockbridge Alum Springs, and in return for the one given to the Alleghany Inn girls last week. The Stars and Stripes waved in a blaze of glory on the walls between V. M. I. pennants and the various fraternity flags, the gay colors of all being reflected by decorations of green foliage.
At midnight the guests were refreshed with salads and lemonade. The visiting honor guests bade a reluctant au revoir to Alleghany Inn, in a college yell that must have awakened the mountains and valleys and reached to the Rock Alum.

AT NATURAL BRIDGE

Special to The Times-Dispatch.
Natural Bridge, Va., August 26.— These lovely days of the late summer are passing most delightfully in this favored land. The weather is ideal, and the god of the open air receives constant homage. There are fishing and driving parties to Lexington and other points of interest; motor parties that speed over the hills; swimming parties when the water babies of the pool disport themselves to their hearts' content; walking parties to Mt.
Jefferson to rest in the summer house that crowns its summit; and to capture the superb view; tennis parties that contend for supremacy with the racket and ball; and fishing parties that angle for the beauties of the trout pool. Not less than these are the continuous
